Hello, my name is Danielle and

[REDACTED], please excuse me, I am a bit nervous. I am 14 years old [REDACTED] and about a little more than a year ago I got into a relationship with an older man who is now 43. I love him very much and calling you is so hard for me so please listen to what I have to say. We first met at Lake Forest Mall after he got back from vacation at the beach, I believe. He was with his wife and two girls at the play area. I was there as well with my parents and he noticed and looked at me and I noticed him as well. He was wearing a blue polo shirt with blue jeans and sandals. He said something to his wife and left the area and gave me a sign to follow him. I followed him to the food court and he began to talk to me at one of the tables. He basically asked me if I was interested in having fun with him. I immediately told him my age, but he says that it didn't matter to him and that he had done this before [REDACTED]. He was tall and very charming and I liked the way he looked, especially with that goofy smile and his gap teeth. I hesitated at first, but he made me feel so good, wanted and happy. He told me I was very beautiful and that it would be innocent and fun. He would set up a meeting about 1 or 2 times a month at the mall and he would bring me to either his home in Bethesda or a hotel. We never speak on the phone, he is afraid of being caught, so he would set the dates for the next month to meet after we had sex. If we needed to see each other in between, he would come to my school (Martin Luther King Jr Middle School) and tell me to go to the mall to meet. He didn't come to my school often, he was afraid that my friends would see and tell on us. He was also afraid that his wife's parents or nanny would see him since the school is nearby where they live. I was in his house in [REDACTED] only once briefly after the new year, his wife, kids and nanny weren't there and he needed to change before we left in the morning. He looked so cute in his yellow button down shirt and brown sleeveless sweater with diamonds in it. Anyway, it was a nice house with a stone fireplace and a big picture of a flower above it with a nice leather chair next to it. It had hardwood floors everywhere and lots of family pictures by the door and going upstairs. It also had a very nice kitchen where [REDACTED] gave me a glass of water and I sat at the glass table with funky chairs. He has two homes, one is in [REDACTED] where he lives with his wife and the other in Bethesda, which was rented out until recently and is really small and old. We skipped the hotels and went to his house in Bethesda once the renters left. I had never had sex before and was extremely nervous the first time, but he made it a wonderful experience and made me feel good and sexy. He showed me things to do to him and make him feel good. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He said his wife is very demanding and bossy and isn't in love with her anymore but cannot leave her because of the kids. He said that I make him feel wanted and alive which made me feel very good. He told me that he was married once before to a woman from Texas name [REDACTED]. It was more a marriage of convenience according to [REDACTED]. For some reason things have changed and he has gotten very mean and has hit me during an argument, which is not like him. He is usually very quiet and doesn't talk much, but it came as a surprise to me that he hit me, though he denies it was on purpose. He is so stressed lately and I think it has gotten to him and I am concerned. He says that between working at [REDACTED] his house issues and his wife, it is stressing him out. I wish I could help him. He states that he loves me but why did he hit me. I love him too but I am now afraid of him because of some things he has done to me and showed me. He now records our sex which I don't like and has showed me photos of others that I believe to be young too. I thought I was the only one. He showed me the photos at his house in Bethesda and in his car. It creeped me out and made me feel really bad. I asked him what was going on and he told me that I am not the only one and that he is having an affair with someone in his family that is very close to his wife and they have sworn to keep it secret for life. I am devastated but also scared of him and looking to get out of the relationship. I don't like sneaking around anymore, especially to avoid his wife [REDACTED]. The times we had sex were scheduled around when his wife wasn't around. On [REDACTED], his wife was in Texas with the kids and we met at the Holiday Inn by the mall in Gaithersburg. He used another name to get the room. We also met around his birthday in [REDACTED], his wife was busy running
